

Press Release

PIPA Snow Polo World Cup Tour 2017

TEAM AUTO FREY WINS AT BAD GASTEIN!

Vienna/ Bad Gastein, February 19th, 2017: Team Auto Frey England 2 wins the PIPA Snow Polo World Cup 2017 at Bad Gastein! Second place goes to Engel & Völkers Argentina, who could also win their last game in front of a fantastic crowd on Sunday!

Team Auto Frey England 2 is the winner of the PIPA Snow Polo World Cup 2017 at Bad Gastein. The team with Tim Ward and Inge Keeling could win all three games at this tournament. On Sunday, they beat Team A Quechua England 1 with Richard Newman and Paulo Kaukal 15:13 and showed that they are the well deserved winners of this years Gastein tournament.

In the first game on the final day, Dominik Velazquez Team Engel & Völkers Argentina could beat Team Happy Horse Austria after a very thrilling fight with 12:11. The Austrians showed fast and good polo, especially Edith Kelz, who became best female player of the tournament scored some nice goals.

Just after the two final matches, PIPA invited for the award ceremony with regional representatives from politics and tourism as well as numerous spectators.

Final Table:

1. Team Auto Frey England 2 (Ward, Keeling)
2. Team Engel & Völkers Argentinien (Velazquez, Hochuli)
3. Team A Quechua Polo England 1 (Newman, Kaukal)
4. Team Happy Horse Österreich (Kelz, Darroux)

More Information:

www.snowpolo.org

Tournament Director: Dr. Uwe Seebacher | info@polo-ipa.com

Press & Media: Stefan Prath | stefan.prath@polo-ipa.com

Pictures: Free for use, Copyright by PIPA